

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. George M. Reed and Mrs. E. B. Branson entertained the local chapter of the Chi Omega sorority, the pledges, alumnae and patronesses at luncheon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Reed on Hicks avenue. There were thirty-five guests.

The Chi Omega sorority celebrated its first anniversary with a banquet at Harris's last night. Besides the twenty-two active members, the following were present: Misses Mildred Norris, Emma B. Bundy, Nelle Schultze, Bernice Wilson and Edith Sawyer. Miss Mary Alice Hudson was toastmistress. The toasts carried out the idea of the life-history of a gold nugget.

Miss Addie White of Columbia is spending the week-end in St. Louis.

Miss Myrtle McDougal of Sapulpa, Ok., who receives her degree from the School of Journalism in June, is in Columbia for Journalism Week.

The Alpha Beta Phi fraternity had a dance last night at their chapter hall.

Mrs. O. L. Smith of Stansberry, Mo., is the guest of her daughter, Miss Helen Smith of the Delta Gamma house.

The Delta Gamma sorority will have an informal dance tonight.

Miss Poiteux Halsted is the guest of Miss Helen Smith.

Miss Laverne Lemmon of Kansas City is visiting at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Miss Frances Farnum of Kansas City is a guest at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Miss L. Pearl Green of Ithaca, N. Y., grand secretary of Kappa Alpha Theta, is the guest of the chapter here.

Dean Walter Williams, Prof. Frank L. Martin and Earle Hodges, Secretary of State of Arkansas, will be the guests of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at dinner Monday evening.

C. M. Marvin of Shenandoah, Iowa, will be the guest of his daughter, Miss Merze Marvin, during Journalism Week.

Miss Olive Koken, Miss Grace Lynch, Miss Frances Bennett, Miss Edna Berek, of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and John Holloway are guest of Miss Rosalie Dulaney of Slater, Mo., at a house party.

Miss Adele Sennott and Miss Constance Limerick are spending the weekend at Miss Sennott's home at Waterloo.

SUFFRAGE MEETING OPENS TOMORROW

Dr. R. H. Jesse Will Welcome Third Annual Convention to Columbia.

Mrs. Medill McCormick to Address Association in Afternoon.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, a leader in the woman suffrage movement in Illinois, and wife of the publisher of the Chicago Tribune, will speak on "Some Results of Woman Suffrage" in the opening session of the third annual convention of the Missouri Equal Suffrage Association at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The meeting will be held in the University Auditorium.

Miss Laura Yeater of Warrensburg will respond to the address of welcome by Dr. R. H. Jesse, former president of the University. Mrs. Nellie G. Burger of Clark, president of the Missouri W. C. T. U., will speak on "Co-operation and Federation Essential to Success." "A Social Worker's Point of View" is the subject of Mrs. E. C. Runge of St. Louis, police judge for girls. The Rev. John L. Brandt of St. Louis also will speak.

A dinner for the visiting delegates will be at 5:30 o'clock tomorrow evening. Mrs. George Gellhorn of St. Louis will be toastmistress. She was president of the students while a student in Bryn Mawr, and is a daughter of Dr. W. Fishel, a well known physician of St. Louis.

Responses to toasts will be made by Dr. Dora Greene-Wilson of Kansas City, Mrs. Luella St. Clair-Moss, president of Christian College, Miss Mary E. Bulkley of St. Louis, the Rev. W. W. Elwang, Mrs. D'Arline Holcomb of Bowling Green, Mrs. J. W. Million, wife of the president of Hardin College, Mexico, and Mrs. Medill McCormick of Chicago.

Tomorrow night the delegates will attend the first session of Journalism Week, at which Mrs. Elizabeth Meriwether Gilmer (Dorothy Dix), special writer for the New York Journal, will make an address on "How the Press Views the Feminist Movement." The business meeting of the convention will be at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. About one hundred delegates will attend the convention, according to Mrs. Walter McNab Miller.

LOUISE MILLER LEADS C. C. CLASS

Two Columbia Girls in College Honor List—93.7 per cent Highest.

Miss Louise Miller, Columbia, leads the senior class at Christian College. Two of the four first places go to students from other states.

The honor graduates of Christian College were announced at chapel service by President St. Clair-Moss on Friday morning. The four students winning this distinction have made an average of ninety per cent or over, the lowest individual average being 90 and the highest 93.7.

The highest average was made by Miss Louise Miller, who has been educated in the Columbia public schools and for the past five years has been a student at Christian. Miss Miller is a daughter of the late Dr. James Houston Miller, a graduate of the University of Virginia, and of Mrs. Max W. Miller, an official of Christian College.

Miss Mary Lee, who won second honors, is a graduate of the Bowling Green Mo., high school and has taken the full junior college course at Christian. Miss Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Lee, of Bowling Green.

Miss Marion Belcher, the third honor student, is a graduate of the high school in her home city of Pomona, Cal. Miss Belcher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Belcher, both of whom are known by many Columbians. Mrs. Belcher has many relatives here and is an alumnae of Christian College.

The fourth student is Miss Morie Stansifer, of Litchfield, Ill., who entered Christian in 1912 after graduating from her home high school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stansifer, her father being a representative business man of Litchfield.

To Elect Y. W. C. A. Delegate.

The delegate from the University Y. W. C. A. to the summer conference at Estes Park, Colo., August 25, will be elected at the regular meeting Thursday afternoon.
